

Blueberry Jam Music Gathering

Policies and Procedures #1

- All vendors must realize that road access to the vendor sites is congested with pedestrians during festival hours and large vehicles bringing supplies must do so outside festival hours. Flagged quads pulling supply carts are allowed during festival hours
- All vendors must use the trash bins and dumpsters provided for disposing their waste

(A) Food Vendors

- Cost to Food Vendors is $500 for the weekend
- Food Vendors will be allowed on-site three (3) hours prior to gate opening times as posted by the Festival Committee
- Food vendors must produce a valid Food Handler Certificate
- Food Vendors must supply all of their own needs for foodstuffs, water, heat and refrigeration as prescribed by law; Electricity is available on site
- Food Vendors must set up in the location assigned to them by the Festival Committee
- The Festival Committee will not be responsible for any costs associated with the Food Vendors and will not be liable in any way
- They may not engage in any competing fundraisers i.e. raffles; 50/50 draws; Membership sales

(B) Retail Vendors

- Cost to Retail Vendors is $250 for the weekend; $100 for any one (1) day, 11:00 AM-10:00 PM
- For Vendors with less than $500 in gross sales, cost is $100 for the whole festival
- Retail Vendors will be allowed on-site two (2) hours prior to gate opening times posted by the Festival Committee
- Retail Vendors must supply all of their own needs for equipment and gear; Electricity is available on site
- Retail Vendors must set up in the location assigned to them by the Festival Committee
- Retail Vendors are not allowed to sell food
- They may not engage in any competing fundraisers i.e. raffles; 50/50 draws; Membership sales

(C) Walking Vendors

- Cost for these small vendors is $100 for the weekend
- Walking Vendors may not sell any homemade food
- They may not engage in any competing fundraisers i.e. raffles; 50/50 draws; Membership sales

(D) Non-Profit Organisations

- Non-profit and fund-raising organizations can operate at BBJ for 50% of the costs for the categories above
- They must set up in the area assigned by the Festival Committee
- They may not engage in any competing fundraisers i.e. raffles; 50/50 draws; Membership sales